

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

In re
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Plaintiffs,

Docket No. 3:22CR303

vs.

ADRIAN TAYLOR

Defendant.

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE DOCKET CALL

NOW COMES Defendant, through undersigned counsel, and moves this Court to continue this matter which is currently scheduled for trial during the March Trial Term. Counsel makes this motion based on a need for additional time to review discovery, and discuss its contents with Defendant. In support of the motion Defendant shows as follows:

1. Defendant made his initial appearance on December 19, 2022, and was arraigned on December 22, 2022. Because the case would be scheduled for a docket call 11 days later, the magistrate Court allowed an oral motion to continue, and the matter was continued until March 6, 2023.
2. The discovery is significant, and contains forensic reports, interviews, and other evidence. The Defense believes that an additional continuance is warranted in order to adequately review the evidence and intelligently discuss its contents with Mr. Taylor.
3. That Mr. Taylor is no longer in custody as he was released to house arrest.
4. That the Government has no objection to Defendant's request for a continuance.

Wherefore, Defendant requests that the Court continue this matter until its May trial term.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of February, 2023.
